

Talk of the Town

WE THINK WE HAVE RECOVERED from our barbecuing, Frisbee-throwing and fireworks-watching weekend — maybe. We're not quite sure.

SHOPPING FOR A REALTOR is something you don't do every day. One thing you probably know for sure is that you want accountability and experience in your Realtor. With Jolaine and Jack Woodson of Alain Pinel Realtors, you get twice these qualities. Call Jolaine at (650) 740-9694 or Jack at (650) 740-9787 to find out more about their services.

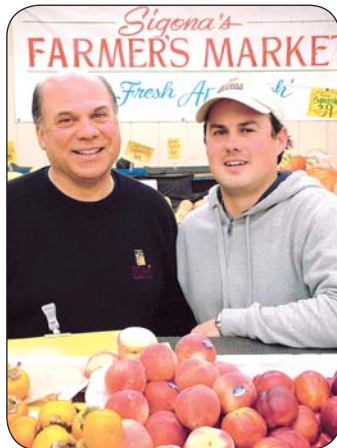

THE LOS ALTOS ARTS AND WINE FESTIVAL is this weekend! Stop by downtown Los Altos and enjoy fine wine from six local wineries, great beer and food and three stages with live music. The Family Fun Zone offers fun for kids of all ages including a huge 100-foot slide! Dance to the sounds of Sage at the free Saturday evening concert from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Main Stage! The weather will be perfect for sipping and tasting and perusing the creative offerings of 375 artists and craftspeople. Visit www.downtownlosaltos.org for more information.

EVERY TUESDAY IS TAQUITO TUESDAY at Alice's Restaurant in Woodside. This is where they offer delicious happy hour specials every weekday for just $5. On Monday, you can get barbecue brisket sliders, and today the special is taquitos. Tomorrow is Wing Wednesday, which means you get a big plate of meaty chicken wings, and if you're at Alice's on Thursday, we know you'll love the nacho special. Finally, if you are going to celebrate the end of the week, the Friday happy hour special is two pulled pork sliders. Alice's is just 10 minutes from Interstate 280 at the intersection of highways 84 and 35. Call (650) 851-0303 for more information.

FARMERS MARKET FRESH. If you were too busy celebrating Independence Day to get to your local farmers market over the weekend, head to Sigona's Market. They offer fresh produce of all varieties: meat and poultry, specialty condiments and more. Robbie, Carmelo and the rest of the Sigona family work hard to bring you the best products available. The market is located in the Stanford Shopping Center in Palo Alto and at 2345 Middlefield Road in Redwood City. Visit www.sigonas.com for recipes, weekly specials and other fun food facts.

ONE OF THE RESIDENTS at Moldaw Residences, Palo Alto's innovative retirement community, is Milton Klein. He was one of the people behind the creation and use of nuclear batteries and was responsible for merging and managing the programs of NASA and the Atomic Energy Commission for the development of a nuclear rocket engine that could someday send humans to Mars. He also was tasked with the development and supplying of nuclear batteries for space exploration missions that would be too far from the sun to be powered by solar energy. The nuclear battery was used in the Apollo and Voyager missions. "It is amazing to hear about the journeys people here at Moldaw have had and the remarkable careers they have led," said Darren Trisel, interim executive director of Moldaw Residences. Moldaw Residences is located at the 8.5-acre Taube Koret Campus for Jewish Life, adjacent to the Oshman Family Jewish Community Center. It has 193 maintenance-free, spacious apartment homes offering extensive social and cultural amenities. Affiliated with the Jewish Senior Living Group, it is open to all faiths, ethnicities and racial backgrounds. For more information, visit www.moldaw.org or call (800) 873-9614.

THERE IS A BIG SUMMER SALE going on at both Gitane locations. Most items are 40% off and they have summer denim, crop tops, colorful dresses and more. Many items at Gitane are made in the United States! Shop local and save at Gitane. Visit 855 Santa Cruz Ave. in Menlo Park or 335 State St. in downtown Los Altos.
